DON QUIXOTE	Ballet	76 min	The classic version of this work starring NADZEDAH PAVLOVA. Music by MINKUS, choreography adapted by VICTOR SMIRNOV-GOLOVANOV based on the original by PETIPA.
THE CARMEN SUITE	Ballet	43 min	With choreography by ALBERTO ALONSIN, this stylish modern ballet, set in a symbolic bullring, captures the spirit and passion of Merimee's novella. Music by RODION SCHEDRIN, choreography by VICTOR SMIRNOV-GOLOVANOV.
THE LOVE AND DEATH OF ANNA KARENINA	Ballet	29 min	One act version of Tolstoy's novel, this modern ballet set in a symbolic bullring, captures the spirit and passion of Merimee's novella. Music by RODION SCHEDRIN after BIZET.
ROMEO AND JULIET	Ballet	20 min	One act version designed and choreography by VICTOR SMIRNOV-GOLOVANOV, set to the TCHAIKOVSKY overture
THE ENIGMA GALLUS	Ballet	60 min	A modern ballet conceived specifically for television by the world renowned choreographer, director, dramatist, and set designer, MILKO SPAREMBLEK celebrating the music, poetry, and other writings of this 16th century composer and philosopher of whom very little is known – hence the enigma

ILLUSIONS      Ballet      38 min      The ballet's choreographer, PAVEL SMOK, Director of the Prague Chamber Ballet, describes "ILLUSIONS" as a "Dance Poem". Set to the music of the Slovene composer, SLAVKO OSTERC, it tells the story of a young man, in love with his Muse, but who is nevertheless prompted by his ego to negative and harmful acts. Only at the end of the work does the hero, now an old man, realize that he has nothing left but his illusions

TRIPTYCH      Ballet      29,22,41 min      A set of three works devised by MILKO SPAREMBLEK. The first depicts the changing faces of nature from morning to evening and is based on Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony. The second is based on Richard Wagner's "Siegfried's Idyll to the Forest" from his opera "Siegfried". The third ballet, "Cathode", is set to five poems by Mathilde Wessendonk and is interpreted by mezzo-soprano SABIRA HAJDEROVIC

THE DREAMS OF DON QUIXOTE      Ballet      40 min      Using the music of VIVALDI, HEINRICH BIBER, TELEMANN and MICHEL CORETTE, choreographer BRIGIT CULBERG (known during the war for her anti-nazi dances), takes the figure of Cervantes hero as a symbol of humanity, loneliness, and yearning for beauty, setting him against a cruel world that only honors and worships heroes of senseless wars.

MLAKAR      Ballet      22 min      A charming documentary based on the life and work of PIA and PINO MLAKAR, renown throughout the dance world of the 30's and 40's for their experimental choreography. Included is some rare vintage footage of their work

PROFESSION
CHANTEUR

Ballet

50 min

Shot in Geneva this documentary gives an interesting insight into the rehearsal process that goes on behind an opera performance. THE CORPSE
GRINDERS

Film

Cats turned man-eaters. Feline menace stalk the city at night. Dr. Howard Glass and his nursing assistant Angie Robinson decide to investigate the cause. Perhaps it is the cat food from the exotically titled Lotus Cat Food Company.

On a clandestine visit to the factory they meet the management team from hell: Landau and Maltby. Their fears are justified when they see the blood stained power saws and chopping blocks; the foul stanching cauldrons, and appalling grinder which transforms cadaverous flesh into the cat's favorite snack.

Will Howard and Angie be able to stop the tide of murder and mayhem that each cat attack evokes. Can the flow of human bodies into canned cat food be stemmed?

THE DOLL SQUAD

GIRL IN GOLD BOOTS

Film

92 min

Buz, on his way to Hollywood, convinces Michelle, a waitress he meets, to join him, Michelle to find fame as a dancer and Buz to find his or someone else's fortune.

Along the way they pick up Critter, a songwriter and draft dodger, seeking a way out of being forced to join the Army.

All three of them come into contact with Leo, a club owner who offers Michelle a lead role in his club's dance act, and Buz a chance to join his underworld drug racket.

Critter overhears plans about a drug deal and tries to persuade Michelle to leave with him. When the deal goes down, things go wrong – who will survive?

BLOOD ORGY
OF THE SHE DEVILS

Film

78 min

Mara, who is a “black” witch well versed in the occult and black magic, leads a coven of voluptuous and beautiful young women, who practice their S-M arts upon helpless victims in a dance of death they know as life. Human male sacrifices are butchered slowly to satiate the blood lust and evil desires of these women from hell.

Rodannus and his side kick, Barth, who are enemy agents seek the aid of Mara and her coven in their plans to kill a United Nations ambassador; using the undetectable nature of magic to complete their mission.

Into this web of intrigue and double dealings are drawn the naïve mew comer to the coven, Lorraine, and her unbelieving boyfriend, Mark. The entry of the “white witch” or “warlock”, Dr. Helsofrd, completes the mise-en-scene. Now the circle of life can be broken.....who will survive this devilish orgy of slaughter?

WORMEATERS

Film

The Mayor of a small town plans to re-develop the local run down old lake, but a hermit by the name of Umgar holds the deeds to half the land, left to him by his murdered father, along with deeds to half the town.

As the Mayor and the town council try all means of underhand tactics to retrieve the deeds, all is not what it seems, but will Umgar’s strange fascination with his friends, some worms, save the day.

ISLAND ON BIRD STREET

BIG CATS	Wildlife	50 min	A programme dedicated to Big Cats, their characteristics, and our fascination with them over the centuries. From the wild inhabitants of the Rocky Mountains, to the untamed predators of darkest Africa, this programme shows the role they all play in maintaining the delicate balance of nature.
PREDATORS	Wildlife	50 min	A documentary looking at the world of animal hunters and the hunted. A real and detailed insight into the cruel and vicious world that is the natural way of survival of the fittest with footage from all around the world.
BABIES	Wildlife	50 min	A look at animal wildlife and their young. A fascinating insight into a wide variety of young animals in their natural habitat. This programme is informative and educational.
THE PRIDE	Wildlife	60 min	Does the Lion deserve its title of The Kings of Beasts? The Pride looks at Lions, lionesses and their cubs - the social structure and groupings, communication, feeding and hunting habits and the interaction with other species.
WILD ABOUT ANIMALS	Wildlife	6x60 min	WILD ABOUT ANIMALS is a series of 6 x 60 mns programmes, which as a whole form a complete worldwide journey throughout the world's diverse wildlife and various habitats from pole to pole.
			The aim of the series is to show the richness and versatility of our fauna rather than a detailed study of individual animals.
			Each programme covers 2 to 3 areas of the globe and is packed full of different animals with a commentary complemented by further written information which the viewer can read as it crawls along the bottom of the picture.
			The programmes can be enjoyed by both adults and young. But the presentation of the footage is especially designed to appeal to a more youthful audience.

The programmes are as follows :

1. ANTARCTICA – AUSTRALIA – THE PACIFIC
2. INDIA – AFRICA
3. AFRICA
4. AMAZONIA – NORTH AMERICA
5. NORTH AMERICA
6. CANADA – ALASKA – SCANDINAVIA

OUR WORLD -
THEIR WORLD

Wildlife

27x10
min

Just in, this exciting collection of wildlife shorts, covering all regions of the globe and animals.

1. ANTARCTICA – Meet penguins, seals and sea lions, and see how wildlife survives in this hospitable environment.
2. AUSTRALIA – Life in a large colony of flying foxes next to the mangrove swamp. Here are the snakes and iguanas that prey on these fruit bats, the largest bats in the world.
3. HAWAII – Albatross, frigate bird and mongoose, and in the sea – giant turtles, sharks, monk-seals, whales and more.
4. TIGER – Discover the lifestyle of the Bengal tigers that live on the Kanha plains in central India.
5. LION – About the lion's environment as well as the big cat itself, this programme includes elephants, zebras, antelopes and more.
6. BABOON – Southern Africa, where these creatures live in colonies that protect it from predators like the leopard.
7. AFRICAN WATER HOLE – All creatures have to visit the water hole - Noah's Ark revisited with elephants, rhinos, hippos, wildebeests, giraffes, antelopes, lions, cheetahs, crocodiles, wart hogs, zebras, bush pigs, buffalo and many more.
8. KILIMANJARO – Animals fighting to survive on the plain beneath the snow-covered mountain, some become food for the vultures.
9. ANTELOPE – There are more than 60 different types of Antelope in Africa including the sabre antelope, the tiny dik-dik, the élan, the springbok, the nyala and many more.
10. CHEETAH – The first of two chapters about this famous hunter, the fastest land animal on Earth.
11. NEW WORLD MONKEYS – South

America's rain forest is the home of a great variety of monkeys, all particular to this part of the world and all great climbers, most having prehensile tails. The howler monkey, the uakari, the golden marmoset and the squirrel monkey.

12. FLORIDA – A fascinating area, rich in wildlife. Alligators, manatees, herons, raccoons and more.

13. BADGER – This large member of the weasel family can be found on both sides of the Atlantic, but here we meet this fierce fighter on the Northern American Continent, where it can still be found in reasonable numbers.

14. BOBCAT – It looks like your friendly tabby, though a bit bigger, but it is an accomplished hunter and a fierce fighter that is surprisingly strong for its size. We follow the animal's life from spring through to winter.

15. SEA OTTER – Off the coast of California the sea otter is returning. A fascinating view of this charming fellow's life at sea – an expert diver and fisherman.

16. RACCOON – An all American animal. The programme follows a single raccoon and its subsequent family from early spring through to the following winter.

17. MOUNTAIN LION – This big cat is also known as the cougar or puma. We follow a lioness as she brings up her cubs, competing with the coyotes and black bear, preying on deer and other mammals – and taking time out for play.

18. BLACK BEAR – Another spring to winter story. The black bear is the friendly bear that we know from national parks, whose worst offence may be to steal apples and honey – but there is more to it than that.

19. OLYMPIC PENINSULA – A peninsula off the North West coast of North America where time stood still and where the wildlife has been left untouched for centuries. Here are beaver, river otter, mountain goat, bald eagle, elk, mountain lion, black bear, coyote and many more.

20. WOLVERINE – A true animal of the north and the biggest and fiercest member of the weasel family. It will confront a couple of coyotes or a black bear should the need arise, and it is one of the world's natural survivors.

21. LEMMING – This little rodent takes centre stage in this programme about the wildlife of northern Scandinavia, which, though fascinating, does dispel a few myths.

22. FISHING ANIMALS – The first of two episodes about animals as fishermen, starting off with the pelican and including such accomplished anglers as the heron, the anhinga, the alligator and the Nile crocodile.

23. FISHING ANIMALS – second episode visiting, amongst others, the snapping turtle, the mink, the river otter, the Kodiak bear, the fox and the bald eagle.

24. DRINK OR DIE – The real drama of the African Plain. When the yearly rain is delayed, life for all the animals becomes more precarious.

25. ALASKA – Despite the cold, this northern American state can pride itself on a rich wildlife. Here we find the bald eagle, bears, wolves and many more.

26. ARCTIC – Another view of this fierce cousin of the weasel, the wolverine, but here in the role as opponent to the trappers of the area. This is also the home of the arctic Jaeger and many other species, even some mountain lions.

27. CHEETAH – Second part of the story of the cheetah, and thus a continuation of programme 10. However, either programme can be watched independent of the other.

WILD CARP

Wildlife

60 min

In the English Midlands, Nicholas meets several Carp experts, each with their own particular methods, skills and baits.

In addition to many Carp adventures, Nicholas discovers a 16th century Fish Stew and meets an angling antique collector who proves that it's still possible to catch Carp on tackle from the turn of the century.

YORKSHIRE TROUT

Wildlife

60 min

Small Moorland rivers are often overlooked by the modern angler, but they provide a wealth of interest for the naturalist and a challenge for the fisherman. Nicholas visits Yorkshire and casts his fly over Wild Brown Trout.

Explore with him several remote hill streams as he journeys through a beautiful, unspoilt landscape. Watch him stalk trout in difficult, overgrown places, fish the evening rise and employ both dry fly and nymph.

WILD BROWN TROUT

Wildlife

60 min

Nicholas visits a chalk stream in the English Midlands, the Aberdeenshire Don in the wilds of Scotland, and several upland rivers in Yorkshire. Fishing on a natural lake is also included and the programme features close-up underwater shots of trout in their own wild environment.

See Wild Brown Trout caught by several different methods, including nymph, dry fly and the upstream worm. Witness traditional angling techniques for Wild Trout in magnificent scenery.

This programme will also be of interest to fly tiers and angling historians as it includes an interview with a pupil of Dr. William Baigent and illustrates the rapidly disappearing art of tying a fly in the finger without a vice.
